

Report of NCW ACS Nigeria student chapters participating in spice lab, Factory tour-visit to spice processing/food factory, in addition to School and community outreach-Hands on activities

A four-man committee was set up by the chair, ACS committee on activities and outreaches comprising of

1. Dr. Felicia Ejiah – chair, committee on activities and outreaches
2. Prof. Atim Johnson – chair ACS committee of Student Advisors
3. Mr. Okeh Ochulor- LOC chair, NCW 2025
4. Prof. Juliet Dodo – Staff Advisor, ACS Student chapter, University of Jos

A total of eight ACS student chapters submitted their reports for assessment.

1. ACS student chapter, UNIUYO
2. ACS student chapter, UNICAL
3. ACS student chapter, YABATECH
4. ACS student chapter, UNN
5. ACS student chapter, NOUN IBADAN
6. ACS student chapter, LAUTECH
7. ACS student chapter, OTUOKE
8. ACS student chapter, Gombe State University

The meeting was held on the 13th of January to assess the student chapters that participated and submitted their photos and videos for the NCW. The committee was able to Award the Best event under spice lab, Event that attracted highest number of attendees or impacted highest number of people under outreach and industry visits.

Below are the results for your consideration.

Best event (spice Lab)

ACS student chapter, UNICAL (1st position)

ACS student chapter, UNIUYO (2nd position)

ACS student chapter, YABATECH (3rd position)

Event that attracted highest number of attendees or impacted highest number of people

Outreach

ACS student chapter, LAUTECH (1st position)

ACS student chapter, OTUOKE (2nd position)

ACS student chapter, UNN (3rd position)

Industry visit

ACS student chapter, LAUTECH (1st position)

ACS student chapter, UNIUYO (2nd position)

We commend ACS student chapter, NOUN IBADAN for participating, ACS student chapter, Gombe State University submitted their Inauguration photos, so we could not grade them for NCW events.

This is my report for the NCW events.

Thank you very much Prof for the opportunity.

Dr. Felicia Ejiah